ADDITIONAL COMMISSION

For each transaction, there is an Additional Commission Charge of $____ _.00_ from Keller Williams Realty Group AC. This additional commission should be noted in the listing agreement, the buyer agency agreement, and the closing cost and seller net sheet. This commission may be reduced only for bank-owned properties or short sales, FHA, and VA, as required by the lender. This commission is charged to all Buyers and Sellers represented by an agent of Keller Williams Realty Group AC. This commission is not included in the transaction commission and covers the specific costs involved in:

- Review of all paperwork by Staff and Broker to ensure the entire file meets the New Jersey Real Estate Commission Guidelines
- Coordination of settlement preparation activities by Keller Williams Realty Group AC office personnel
- Follow up with cooperating Real Estate Companies to ensure all requirements have been fulfilled on their end.
- Process of file review of all contracts and signatures
- Physical and electronic storage of all documents for 7 years
- Availability of the closing documents at the customer's request for tax purposes
- Emailing the completed file to the Consumer after settlement
