3. SECURITY DEPOSITS

(A) At the end of the Lease or whenever you move from the Property (whichever happens first), you must provide Landlord with your forwarding address, in writing. If you fail to do this, Landlord will not have to provide the list of damages and the remaining security deposit to you as stated in subparagraph (C), below, and in the Pennsylvania Landlord and Tenant Act.

(B) Landlord may deduct repair and/or replacement costs and any unpaid rent, utility charges, or additional rent from your security deposit. You may be responsible for any unpaid expenses remaining after Landlord deducts costs from the security deposit.

(C) After you move from the Property, Landlord will, within 30 days, provide you with a written list of any damages to the Property for which Landlord claims you are responsible. Any remaining security deposit will be returned to you within 30 days of your moving from the Property. YOU ARE ADVISED THAT FAILURE TO PROVIDE LANDLORD WITH A FORWARDING ADDRESS MAY CAUSE YOU TO LOSE SOME RIGHTS.
